

Connect the Dots™

Beginner OS X Course

One Session: $260

At Home Computer Lessons

Connect the Dots is inspired by their clients who are sending emails to grandkids, exploring the internet, printing labels and writing memoirs.

Easy training tailored to what you want to learn. All materials are in large print and easy to understand.

Make an appointment to meet at your home and work on your computer at your pace. We can help you use email, the internet, shop on eBay, reach medical sites, find a movie, or view the first picture of your grandchild.
